

STEVEN JUGLE

OF COUNSEL, ALAVI ANAIPAKOS

Steven Jugle provides years of experience in all stages of intellectual property litigation, including invalidity analysis, infringement analysis, economic analysis, claim construction, pretrial discovery, motion practice, and trial witness preparation.

Mr. Jugle has handled numerous matters before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board, including inter partes reviews and post-grant reviews.

He has also prosecuted multiple patents involving wireless and telecommunications technologies, petrochemicals, semiconductors, and solar cells. Clients across various industries have called on Mr. Jugle to manage international patent prosecutions.

Before joining Alavi and Anaipakos, Mr. Jugle focused on patent disputes at the boutique intellectual property firm AZA and the AmLaw 100 firm Baker Botts.

A former engineer at Dow Chemical Company, he earned his law degree from Harvard Law School after completing his bachelor's and master's degrees in chemical engineering at the Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology..
